Dear Friend,

CITY COUNCIL

District 1

Brian Kennedy

The City of El Paso is excited to announce we are converting the management and oversight of the existing zoo membership program to the Zoo staff. The membership program was previously managed by the El Paso Zoological Society, a private nonprofit corporation.

District 2

Dr. Josh Acevedo

Your existing membership is of utmost importance to us, and we want to assure you that it will be seamlessly honored and will continue without any interruption.

District 3

Cassandra Hernandez

The El Paso Zoological Society has been our valued partner for many years, and we look forward to continuing to work with the Society to re-imagine a strong and beneficial relationship moving forward.

District 4

Joe Molinar

The El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens remain devoted to our mission to celebrate the value of animals and natural resources and create opportunities for people to rediscover their connection to nature.

District 6

Art Fierro

In the coming weeks, we are excited to unveil our enhanced membership benefits package, designed to provide you with even greater value and exclusive access to your beloved Zoo.

District 7

Henry Rivera

You will receive exciting Zoo News, member information, member-only events, member discounts, and a host of other new benefits that will enhance your membership even further.

District 8

Chris Canales

We sincerely hope you've had the opportunity to explore the new Penguin Oasis and meet our ten new aquatic residents who originate from four different zoos. Each of the Magellanic Penguins has a unique and charming personality, and some of them have very peculiar names such as Sir Admiral Fancy Pants, also known as The Admiral or AFP. While several of the penguins have some silly names their arrival is part of an important national conservation effort overseen by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums. We are extremely honored to be able to participate in the conservation efforts of this near threatened species.

We would also like to introduce you to Taj, our magnificent 8-year-old, 5-thousand-pound Greater One Horned Asian Rhino. Taj is not only a handsome addition but will soon be part of an active breeding program at the Zoo. Later this year, we look forward to welcoming two female companions for Taj, contributing to the global effort to increase the population of Greater One Horn Rhinos.

Exciting developments are also underway within the Zoo, including the renovation of the Galapagos tortoise night holding area, the groundbreaking for the new Komodo Dragon Exhibit, and the completion of flooring work in the Nocturnal exhibit and Atrium.

We want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your continued dedication to the El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens and your wonderful community!

The City of El Paso is excited to announce we are converting the management and oversight of the existing zoo volunteer program to the Zoo staff. The volunteer program was previously managed by the El Paso Zoological Society, a private nonprofit corporation.

Rest assured your existing volunteer opportunities will go on seamlessly without interruption by this transition.

The El Paso Zoological Society has been our valued partner for many years, and we look forward to continuing to work with the Society to re-imagine a strong and beneficial relationship moving forward.

The El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens remain devoted to our mission to celebrate the value of animals and natural resources and create opportunities for people to rediscover their connection to nature.

In the coming weeks, we are excited to unveil our enhanced volunteer program which will give you more and diverse opportunities to volunteer. Some of these new opportunities will come in specialized volunteering opportunities depending on where you would like to help. For example, we will be starting up a construction volunteer group, a gardening volunteer task force, an event volunteer group, our outreach specialists and animal handlers, eco-rangers and a slew of other specialized volunteer opportunities with specialize trainings for each.

We will also be launching a volunteer-only web portal and be converting some space into a volunteer lounge where you can check in, leave your personal belongings also receive important updates and information.

When you come to volunteer, we will be asking you to fill out the city volunteer form and then continue with the service you have been providing the zoo. Mr. Rick LoBello our Education and Conservation Director will be coordinating the volunteer program along with some familiar and some new faces.

We express our heartfelt gratitude for your continued volunteering and support of the El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens.

Should you have any questions or require further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at montisanoj@elpasotexas.gov or call 915.212.2800.

Sincerely,

Joe Montisano
